Goldschmidt & Associates Brokers the Sale of 115 Cedar Street New Rochelle, New York to Ward Capital, LLC

Eric S. Goldschmidt, Senior Partner at Scarsdale, New York based Goldschmidt & Associates announced the sale of 115 Cedar Street, New Rochelle, New York.

Mr. Goldschmidt was the sole broker.

The 23,000 SF building was owned by Cedarland LLC. It was purchased by D'Wayne Prieto of Ward Capital, LLC.

The well-known building overlooking I-95 at exit 16 was the former home of Plastic Works and then Don Coqui restaurant. The new owners have not publicized its future plans of the property as discussions continue with the City of New Rochelle.

The purchase price of the vacant building was near the $3,950,000 asking price.
