Goldschmidt & Associates
Brokers 2,418 SF Office Lease
At 1075 Central Park Avenue, Scarsdale, New York

Eric S. Goldschmidt, Senior Partner at Scarsdale New York based Goldschmidt & Associates announced that it has brokered a 2,418 SF lease on the lobby level of The Apple Bank Building to The Scarsdale Inquirer. Mr. Goldschmidt was the sole broker.

The Scarsdale Inquirer began publishing in 1901. It is the most read local newspaper in lower Westchester Country. The move from Scarsdale Village will enable the newspaper to expand its services and make it more accessible to its employees and reporters.

1075 Central Park Avenue is most commonly known as the Apple Bank Building, as its Scarsdale branch is situated off the lobby. The building has an abundance of parking, is at the Bee Line bus stops, and it enters and exits at a traffic lit corner. The building is currently 100% occupied mostly by medical and professional practices. A 1,270 SF space will become available in April 2020.
